bottled up in the Democrat-controlled House of Representatives. That bill, discussed elsew in this platform, will help minority Americans living in cities and urban areas to get jobs, i their own businesses, and to reap the fruits of entrepreneurship by tapping their individua

We honor and respect the contributions of minority Americans and will do all we can to se threads that weave the fabric that is America and make us stronger as a nation. We recogni these individuals and their contributions and will continue to promote the kinds of policies of equal rights for all.

We continue to favor whatever legislation may be necessary to permit American citizens

We support the right of Indian Tribes to manage their own affairs and resources Recognizi

Native Hawaiians are the only indigenous people of our country who are not officially designated as Native Americans They should share that honored title We endorse efforts t

Testing Your HP Fax Machine with the HP Fax Test Service

Introduction

This document will assist you in testing your HP Fax machine using the HP Fax Test Service.

Print this document for easy reference by clicking the Printable Version link in the upper right corner of this page.

Test your fax machine

To test the capability of your fax machine, follow the directions below:

NOTE: Be sure the phone number is not Caller ID blocked by your telephone company prior to attempting to send and receive a fax. Pressing *82 before dialing the toll free number will unblock the Caller ID blocking feature in most areas. Other phone company services can prevent your fax from receiving a fax, including voice mail, call blocking, or call privacy features.

NOTE: When over troubleshooting a fax issue, it is good practice to set the Automatic Reports option to Every Error before attempting a test fax. This way, even if the send fax fails, an error code will be generated that will guide you in future troubleshooting. This option is available in different places on different products, consult the product User's Guide for specific steps.

1. Send a one page black and white test fax to 1-888-hpfaxme (1-888-473-2963).
2. When your fax is received by the HP Test Fax Service, we will generate a return fax to you within five minutes confirming that we received your fax. This verifies that you can both send and receive a fax with your fax machine.

If you do not receive return fax within 5-7 minutes, there may be a problem with the setup of your fax machine. Consult the user manual that came with the product for proper setup and configuration.

NOTE: The most common cause of failure is that the fax number set in the Fax Header on the machine does not match the number of the phone line connected to the fax. Also, ensure that the fax header contains the full 10 digit telephone number of the fax machine including the area code.

For more information or assistance, click Contact HP at the top of this page.

Farmer is a 51-year old white male who complains of progressive bilateral knee discomfort that interferes with his ability to sleep but also interferes with his job as a sanitation worker. He has had no specific discrete trauma to either knee. He denies locking or instability symptoms but complains of purely pain.

Past Medical History: His past medical history is significant for diabetes which is controlled with oral medication. He takes only intermittent nonsteroidal anti-inflammatories.

Review of Systems: His review of systems is otherwise noncontributory.

Physical Examination: Demonstrates him to be in no acute distress. He has palpable pulses in both feet. He has no other findings on exam.

X-Rays: X-rays show end-stage osteoarthritis.

Plan: He needs bilateral total knee replacements and this will be scheduled.

What's New

The IRS has created a page on IRS.gov for information about Form 4506-T at www.irs.gov/form4506T. Information about any recent developments affecting Form 4506-T (such as legislation enacted after we released it) will be posted on that page.

General Instructions

Purpose of form. Use Form 4506-T to request tax return information. You can also designate (on line 6) a third party to receive the information. Taxpayers using a tax year beginning in one calendar year and ending in the following year cannot request tax form 4506-T to request a return transcript.

Note. If you are unsure of which type of transcript you need, request the Record of Account, as it provides the most detailed information.

Tip. Use Form 4506, Request for Copy of Tax Return, to request copies of tax returns.

Where to file. Mail or fax Form 4506-T to the address below for the state you lived in, or the state your business were in, when that return was filed. There are two different charts: one for individual transcripts (Form 1040 series and Form W-2) and one for all other transcripts.

If you are requesting more than one transcript or other product and the chart below shows two different addresses, send your request to the address based on the address of your most recent return.

Automated transcript request. You can quickly request transcripts by using our automated self-help service tools. Please visit us at IRS.gov and click on "Order a Transcript" or call 1-800-908-9946.

Chart for individual transcripts (Form 1040 series and Form W-2 and Form 1099)

Otherwise, enter the first social security number (SSN) or your individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN) shown on the return. For example, if you are requesting Form 1040 that includes Schedule C (Form 1040), enter your SEN.

Line 3. Enter your current address. If you use a P.O. box, include it on this line.

Line 4. Enter the address shown on the last return filed if different from the address entered on line 3.

You can fax something

Fax single page documents with no cover sheet. If you fax more than one page, only the last page will appear here. We try to snip off the top few pixels of the page where your [illegible] name and fax number should appear, but make no promises that this will actually work.

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine, and I'd like to test it, just to make sure it works. How can I do that?

Presumably you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both:

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a message fax to 1-855-30-1229 (a toll-free number in the United States). When I've reached that number, point your web browser to Fax Test — it'll then wait a few minutes, during which whatever is faxed to the number will appear in the Faxes Received section. Then, the original fax will be printed out on the machine that received it.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxTest — this site lets you send a test fax free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully it will automatically answer it and spit out the test fax.

Range to detail chemicals used in fracking wells

Range Resources on Wednesday became the first Marcellus Shale gas producer to say it would begin publicly disclosing, on a well-by-well basis, the chemicals used in its hydraulic fracturing fluids in Pennsylvania.

Range said it will reveal not only the specific chemicals used to frack each well but also how much of each component is blended

The move goes a step beyond last month's requirement by the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection's that drillers list the chemicals in their fracking compounds

The gas drilling industry and its service providers have long

Stupak: Feds should bar 'bad actors' from Gulf

Michigan Democrat Bart Stupak, one of the leaders of the House of Representatives investigation into BP's oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico, said Wednesday that while he does not suspect barring the company from receiving additional offshore leases, he does favor giving regulators authority to ban operators with a history of violations from getting new permits.

Stupak's comments came as the House Natural Resources Committee approved an amendment to a broad offshore oil and gas reform bill that would prohibit BP from receiving new offshore oil and

Wash trading enforcement difficult, CFTC told

The Commod ity F utures Trading Commission may soon implement new limits on financial technologies used in futures and options trading, but regulators remain unsure how they will address the practice of wash trading.

Futures and options exchanges are already monitoring so-called wash trades, but there may be little the CFTC can do to prevent it according to recommendations presented at the CFTC's Technology Advisory Committee meeting Wednesday in Washington.

Wash trading is an illegal practice in which there is a simultaneous

NYMEX, cash prices decline in sluggish market

THE MARKET

In a day of lackluster trading, cash prices inched lower in most regions Wednesday while the August NYMEX gas futures contract slid 6.6 cents to settle at $4.366/MMBtu.

Analysts and brokers said the contract is being influenced by a mix of bullish forces — such as predictions for an active hurricane season and a gradually recovering economy — and bearish forces such as high gas storage levels and rising rig counts.

Tom Saal, vice president of energy trading at Hencorp Beacon Futures, said he believes the contract will continue lower Thursday that

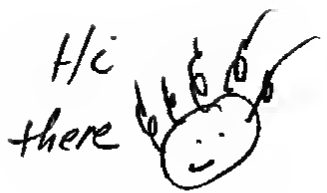
3 BIG STORIES!



Hi
there

29.4.1 FORCE_ALERT Message (Function Code 0x0400)

Command Class – 0x00	Command Type – 0x00	Run Time Code – 0x0000
Originator – Device Level	Configuration Change	FORCE_ALERT

The FORCE_ALERT command generates an alert error condition in the device. This can be useful for testing Host error condition handling, and also in preparation for a Coredump when the device did not issue a fatal alert message.

The FORCE_ALERT command can be used to generate a "fatal alert" this will flush the ARM caches and also save important working state that will be otherwise be lost during the Coredump process (that is, device RESET) when using OSM_ENCAPS control.

The command takes a single 16 bit parameter which specifies the Alert Type generated by the device. When preparing for a CoreDump, it is recommended to use Alert Type 0x0004, which generates a data abort. (Alert Types are described in the Section 29.4 Alert Diagnostic Indication Format on page 565.)

Parameter 1 (FIFO Word 4) Alert Type to be generated

FIFO Word	Description
4	Bits 15:0 Alert Type to be Generated Alert Type 0x0004 (Data Abort) is recommended for Coredump

29.5 Diagnostic Output Paths

Diagnostic messages and responses can be transmitted between the MSP Device and the Host using the PCI µP interface or the RMII Ethernet interface (using Open Diagnostics and OSM_ENCAPS).

Open diagnostics have the ability to be redirected to a different output. Redirection can reduce the load for a Host to recognize, store and analyze debug information when needed. With redirection, the diagnostics can be redirected to Ethernet (for instance) where the debug information will be automatically routed to a designated switch.

- Path 1: REDIRECT OVER OSM_ENCAPS or REDIRECT OVER IP/UDP
- Path 2: PCI µP

29.5.1 Sequence for Configuring Unified Diagnostic Commands Example

- SET_TDM_PARAMS – Device Level Configurations first
- SET_ETH_HDR_DEVICE – MSP Device Source MAC Address.
- IP_SERVICE_CFG – required before SET_IP_HDR command.
- IP_ADDRESS – MSP Device Source IP Address
- ARP_SERVICE_CONFIG – config. for Host
- NIF_SELECT – NIF of Ethernet interface to which Open Diags will be redirected.
- REDIRECT OVER OSM_ENCAPS or REDIRECT OVER IP UDP
- SUPVSR_CREATE_CHANNEL

After the SUPVSR_UNLIAL_CHANNEL command, the "Enable diag" commands can be issued before or after enabling voice (VOPERA) on a specific channel. If traces are required from the beginning of a voice call, the "Enable diag" command must be sent before enabling voice on a specific channel.

Burglar Alarm Monitoring Permit Information!

Our records indicate that your police department requires you to file for a permit for your alarm.

We suggest that you call your local police department to confirm whether or not a permit is required. Failing to register for a permit could result in the police denying our request that they respond to an alarm at your residence. Be sure to indicate that you have a SELF INSTALLED alarm. If you have questions on your registration or require any additional information please call us at 1-888-957-4675

Instructions: Alarm users in Fulton County are required to obtain an alarm permit. Please fill out the attached form and mail or fax to your City. If you live within the city limits of Alpharetta, Milton or Roswell, your City requires a special alarm permit. Please fill out the appropriate form and submit to your City. Also, the City of Johns Creek requires all alarm users obtain a permit. Please fill out the alarm permit application online at http://www.johnscreekga.gov/online/forms/alarm_residential.aspx Indicate your alarm system is installed by the owner and your monitoring company is Amcest Corporation with phone 800 631 7370

Fire Alarm Monitoring Permit Information!

We suggest that you call your local fire department to confirm whether or not a permit is required. Failing to register for a permit could result in the fire department denying our request that they respond to a fire alarm at your residence or issuing a large fine for response. Be sure to indicate that you have a SELF INSTALLED fire alarm. If you have questions on your registration or require any additional information, please call us at 1-888-957-4675

Instructions: It looks like we don't have any permit information on file for your area. This is either because we've not encountered permit requirements in your City or County, or there is no permit requirement. Please call your local fire department (not 911!) to find out if there is any permit requirement. If there is, we'd love it if you could give us a call so that we can add it to our files. Be sure to indicate that your fire alarm is 'SELF-INSTALLED' when filling out a permit; also, typically for your Alarm Company list 'Self-Installed' and your Monitoring Company is Amcest Corporation of Roselle, NJ at 1-800-631-7370. The Fire Sensors provided by SimpliSafe are NOT for commercial use.

Hello World

I SAID TO THE MAN
who stood at the gate of the Year,
'Give me a light that I may tread safely
into the unknown.' And he replied,
'Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the hand of God. That shall be to you better than a light and safer than a known way!'

Dear eBay Seller

eBay recognizes that sometimes a listing may be mistakenly identified by a Verified Intellectual Property Owner or law enforcement as offering an infringing or otherwise unauthorized or illegal item. In the event that such a mistake occurs, you should contact the complaining party directly. eBay will gladly reinstate the listing upon receipt of an acknowledgement of the mistake from the complaining party.

Alternately, if the complaining party does not agree that their request was in error, you may provide the attached Counter Notice Regarding Removed Listing to eBay. The Counter Notice form requests a sworn statement under the penalty of perjury and other information which substantially complies with the requirements of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. section 512, which states:

To be effective under this subsection, a counter notification must be a written communication provided to the service provider's designated agent that includes substantially the following:

(A) A physical or electronic signature of the subscriber.
(B) Identification of the material that has been removed or to which access has been disabled and the location at which the material appeared before it was removed or access to it was disabled.
(C) A statement under penalty of perjury that the subscriber has a good faith belief that the material was removed or disabled as a result of mistake or misidentification of the material to be removed or disabled.
(D) The subscriber's name, address, and telephone number, and a statement that the subscriber consents to the jurisdiction of Federal District Court for the judicial district in which the address is located, or if the subscriber's address is outside the United States, for any judicial district in which the service provider may be found, and that the subscriber will accept service of process from the person who provided notification under subsection (c)(1)(C) or an agent from such person.

We will not be able to consider your Counter Notice unless you fill out the form in its entirety and physically sign the form. Please make sure that the Counter Notice you send to eBay is legible. If we cannot read your handwriting we will not be able to process your Counter Notice.

Upon receiving the original of your fully completed Counter Notice, eBay will notify the reporting party. If the issue(s) cannot be resolved, eBay will send your Counter Notice to the reporting party. eBay will inform that entity that the listing will be reinstated after 10 business days unless eBay receives notice from the reporting party that it has filed an action seeking a court order to restrain you from re-listing the item(s). If the reporting party disagrees with your Counter Notice, they may file a legal action against you to prevent the reinstatement of the removed item(s). Alternatively, if they notify us in writing or by e-mail it at they no longer object to the item, listing, or material, we will reinstate it.

Very truly yours,

If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

America was founded on the idea of opportunity. Immigrants originally traveled from all over to make a better life for themselves and their families. They chased after the American dream and built themselves up with nothing but hard work and the support of people around them. Unfortunately, that idea is quickly fading from today's America. Many parents tell their children they can be anything when they grow up. How many parents of other countries can say that to their kids? Maybe a handful? The point is that the reason parents can say this is because America provides its citizens with the opportunity to succeed and become "something." The opportunity is there. Unfortunately that opportunity is decreasing and at a rapid rate. When the desire to better yourself becomes obsolete, opportunity is shifted elsewhere. It's a domino effect. When one person shifts, the cycle continues to compound. For example, when Person A gives up on working and collects welfare, Person B witnesses this and has a decision to make. He can either continue working and collect money or not work and collect money. The second option seems like a more appealing choice so Person B also begins collecting welfare. The cycle continues on and on until everyone demands to earn the same regardless of how much work is achieved. The desire to work hard and earn an honest living is thrown out the window. We are at a crossroads where we can either choose to continue creating opportunities for ourselves and each other or to give up and take the easy way out which only hurts us in the end. America without opportunity is not America. I can promise you that.

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine, and I'd like to test it, just to make sure it works. How can I do that?

Presumably you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both.

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1-855-930-1239 (a toll-free number in the United States.) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to FaxYay — it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Wait in a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero. This site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

What's In a Cigarette!

There are over 5,000 chemicals in a cigarette. Many of these occur naturally in tobacco. Others are added as insecticides and fertilizers, to enhance flavor, and to make the paper burn evenly and longer. Still others are a result of the burning process itself. Here's a sample of the substances you put in your body every time you puff on a cigarette!

Acetone:	Paint Thinner
Ammonia:	Household cleaner
Arsenic:	Rat Poison
Benzene:	Used in making dye
Butane:	The gas in lighter fluid
Carbon Monoxide:	This comes out of your car's tail pipe
Cadmium:	Used in batteries
Cyanide:	A deadly poison
DDT:	An insecticide
Formaldehyde:	Used in embalming
Hydrogen Cyanide:	The poison used in gas chambers
Lead:	An ingredient banned from paint
Naphthalene:	Used to make mothballs
Polonium:	A cancer causing radioactive element
Tar:	The same material used to fill potholes
Urea:	The substance that makes up your urine

....and 36 other known carcinogens

Nicotine: Nicotine is the addictive substance in cigarettes. It's what keeps you hooked. However, it's not what causes the medical problems associated with smoking. All the chemicals listed above cause or contribute to the cancers, heart conditions, breathing problems and the hundreds of other problems that result from smoking!

Ask yourself:

Is the risk of putting all this junk in your body worth whatever pleasure you think you get from smoking? Think about it!!

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine, and I'd like to test it, just to make sure it works. How can I do that?

Presumably, you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1-855-330-1239 (a toll-free number in the United States.) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to Lux.lov — it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero, this site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

ACKNOWLEDGE
RESPOND

ACKNOWLEDGE This means becoming aware of paying attention to noticing, naming my interior affective movements (thoughts, feelings and desires) It is impossible to grow in relationship with another without first coming to some self-possession. Try to grow in friendship with someone who cannot name their preferences their likes and dislikes their opinions their values or their beliefs It simply does not work We are invited to encounter God as we are and acknowledging our thoughts feelings and desires is the first necessary dynamic of growing intimacy with the Trinity

RELATE The second fundamental relational dynamic for growing Trinitarian intimacy is to relate what I find in my heart to God and to do so honestly and consistently Tell God all about it—the good, the bad, and the ugly Entrust what is in the heart to God. God does not need a news update, but knows that if we open our hearts to him in honesty and trust, we will be maximally receptive to what he wants to give. It is a huge interior leap to move from awareness of the thoughts feelings and desires to actually relating them to God. Good contemplative spiritual direction will always be helping the directee to notice and say more about interior affective movements, and will be checking to see if the directee has related these to God

RECEIVE Honest and consistent acknowledging, and relating of the movements of the heart will dispose the disciple to receive fully and generously all that God desires to give Reception of divine love is the most fruitful human activity Think of the Annunciation- Mary does not say "I'll do it but "Be it done unto me." In reality we are always in a position to receive from God because we are radically dependent on him for our very being and for every good thing Mary is a great model of fruitful receptivity because she is the first and greatest disciple of Jesus who receives everything from the heavenly Father

RESPOND What we receive from God calls for a response Our response will be free virtuous, effective and fruitful if it is inspired, directed, empowered and sustained by the grace we have received Our response to God must be on the basis of the gift of communion received from him for as Jesus teaches in the parable of the vine and the branches "Apart from me you can do nothing"

Terrorism Premium Information
Arizona

The premium for terrorism coverage, as defined in Section 102(1) of the Act is based on the premiums for each coverage part included in your policy that qualifies for coverage under the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act and the location of any property covered under the policy. Refer to the attached Policyholder Disclosure Notice of Terrorism Insurance Coverage for a description of applicable provisions in the Act.

If your ACUITY policy contains the following coverage part:	The premium charge for terrorism insurance if you accept coverage under the Act is:
• Bis-Pak - Property Portion of Your Premium Counties	• 6.0% of the property premium applying to Maricopa County • 4.5% of the property premium applying to Pima County • 3% of the property premium for all other locations
• Bis-Pak - Liability Portion of Your Premium	• 1% of the liability premium applying to your policy
• Commercial Property and Commercial Inland Marine Coverage Parts	• 6.0% of the premium applying in Maricopa County • 4.5% of the premium applying in Pima County • 3% of the premium for all other locations
• Commercial General Liability and Commercial Excess Liability Coverage Parts	• 1% of the premium applying to each of the coverage parts

The Arizona standard fire policy statute requires that we provide coverage for loss to real property used "predominantly for residential purposes and which consists of not more than four dwelling units" that is caused by fire resulting from an act of terrorism. This applies even if you choose to reject coverage for terrorism. There is no additional premium charge for this coverage and the exception applies only to that real property being used in the manner described.

- PDF files always display exactly as created, regardless of fonts, software and operating systems. Fonts and graphics are not lost due to platform, software and version incompatibilities.
- The free Acrobat Reader is easy to download and can be freely distributed by anyone.
- Compact PDF files are smaller than their source files and download a page at a time for fast display on the Web.

3. DISPUTE RESOLUTION BY BINDING ARBITRATION.

3.1 Summary of Arbitration Agreement. Please read text carefully. It affects your rights. Most customer concerns can be resolved quickly and to the customer's satisfaction by calling our customer service department at 1-800-331-0500. In the unlikely event that AT&T's customer service department is unable to resolve a complaint you may have to your satisfaction (or if AT&T has not been able to resolve a dispute it has with you after attempting to do so informally), we each agree to resolve those disputes through binding arbitration or small claims court instead of in courts of general jurisdiction. A arbitration is more informal than a lawsuit in court. Arbitration uses a neutral arbitrator instead of a judge or jury, allows for more limited discovery than in court, and is subject to very limited review by courts. Arbitrators can award the same damages and relief that a court can award. Any arbitration under this Agreement will take place on an individual basis; class arbitrations and class actions are not permitted. For any non-frivolous claim that does not exceed $75,000, AT&T will pay all costs of the arbitration. Moreover, if arbitrator gives you an award that is greater than the amount of the last written settlement offer that AT&T made to you before the arbitrator's award and will pay your attorney (if any) twice his or her reasonable attorneys' fees if the arbitrator awards you an amount that is greater than what AT&T has offered you to settle the dispute.

3.2 Arbitration Agreement.

(1) AT&T and you agree to arbitrate all disputes and claims between us. This agreement to arbitrate is intended to be broadly interpreted. It includes, but is not limited to:

- claims arising out of or relating to any aspect of the relationship between us whether based in contract, tort, statute, fraud, misrepresentation or any other legal theory;
- claims that arose before this or any prior Agreement (including, but not limited to, claims relating to advertising);
- claims that are currently the subject of purported class action litigation in which you are not a member of a certified class; and
- claims that may arise after the termination of this Agreement.

References to "AT&T," "you," and "us" include our respective subsidiaries, affiliates, agents, employees, predecessors in interest, successors and assigns, as well as all authorized or unauthorized users or beneficiaries of services or devices under this or prior Agreements between us. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may bring an individual action in small claims court. This arbitration agreement does not preclude you from bringing issues to the attention of federal, state or local agencies, including, for example, the Federal Communications Commission. Such agencies can, if the law allows, seek relief against us on your behalf. You agree that, by entering into this Agreement, you and AT&T are each waiving the right to a trial by jury or to participate in a class action. This Agreement evidences a transaction in interstate commerce, and thus the Federal Arbitration Act governs the interpretation and enforcement of this provision. This arbitration provision shall survive termination of this Agreement.

(2) A party who intends to seek arbitration must first send to the other, by certified mail, a written Notice of Dispute ("Notice"). The Notice to AT&T should be addressed to: Office for Dispute Resolution, 1025 Lenox Park Blvd. Atlanta, GA 30319 ("Notice Address"). The Notice must: (a) describe the nature and basis of the claim or dispute; and (b) set forth the specific relief sought ("Demand"). If AT&T and you do not reach an agreement to resolve the claim within 30 days after the Notice is received, you or AT&T may commence an arbitration proceeding. During the arbitration, the amount of any settlement offer made by AT&T or you shall not be disclosed to the arbitrator until after the arbitrator determines the amount, if any, to which you or AT&T is entitled. You may download or copy a form Notice and a form to initiate arbitration at att.com/arbitration-terms.

(3) Arbitrator. AT&T receives notice of the Notice Address that you have come ahead of time and if it will promptly reimburse you for your payment of the filing fee, unless your claim is for greater than $75,000. (The filing fee currently in 2020 for claims under $10,000 but is subject to change by the arbitration provider. If you are unable to pay this fee, AT&T will pay it directly upon receiving a written request at the Notice Address.) The arbitrator will be governed by the Consumer Arbitration Rules ("AAA Rules") of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") as modified by this Agreement, and will be administered by the AAA. The AAA Rules are available online at adr.org, by calling the AAA at 1-800-778-7879, or by writing to the Notice Address. (You may obtain information about the fee required for non-lawyers about the arbitration process at att.com/arbitration-information.) The arbitrator is bound by the terms of this Agreement. All issues are for the arbitrator to decide, except that issues relating to the scope and enforceability of the arbitration provision are for the court to decide. Unless AT&T and you agree otherwise, any arbitration hearing will take place in the county (or parish) of your billing address. If your claim is for $10,000 or less, we agree that you may choose whether the arbitration will be conducted solely on the basis of documents submitted to the arbitration through a telephonic hearing, or by an in person hearing as established by the AAA Rules. If your claim exceeds $10,000, the right to a hearing will be determined by the

Pretty women wonder where my secret lies
I'm not cute or built to suit a model's fashion size
But when I start to tell them
They think I'm telling lies.
I say
It's in the reach of my arms
The span of my hips
The stride of my steps
The curl of my lips.
I'm a woman
Phenomenally
Phenomenal woman
That's me.
I walk into a room
Just as cool as you please
And to a man
The fellows stand or
Fall down on their knees
Then they swarm around me
A hive of honey bees.
I say
It's the fire in my eyes
And the flash of my teeth
The swing of my waist
And the joy in my feet.
I'm a woman
Phenomenally
Phenomenal woman
That's me.
Men themselves have wondered
What they see in me
They try so much
But they can't touch
My inner mystery.
When I try to show them
They say they still can't see.
I say
It's in the arch of my back
The sun of my smile
The ride of my breasts
The grace of my style
I'm a woman
Phenomenally
Phenomenal woman
That's me.
Now you understand
Just why my head's not bowed
I don't shout or jump around
Or have to talk real loud
When you see me passing
It ought to make you proud.
I say
It's in the click of my heels
The bend of my hair
The palm of my hand
The need for my care.
'Cause I'm a woman
Phenomenally
Phenomenal woman
That's me.

Prayer to St. Joseph over 1900 years old

O St. Joseph whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the Throne of God, I place in you all my interests and desires. O St. Joseph do assist me by your powerful intercession and obtain for me from your Divine Son all spiritual blessings through Jesus Christ, Our Lord; so that having engaged here below your Heavenly power I may offer my Thanksgiving and Homage to the most Loving of Fathers. O St. Joseph, I never weary contemplating you and Jesus asleep in your arms. I dare not approach while He reposes near your heart. Press him in my name and kiss His fine Head for me, and ask Him to return the Kiss when I draw my dying breath. St. Joseph, Patron of departing souls, pray for us. Amen

Say for nine consecutive mornings for anything you may desire. It has seldom been known to fail.

This prayer was found in the fiftieth year of Our Lord Jesus Christ. In 1500's it was sent by the Pope to Emperor Charles when he was going into battle.

Whoever reads this prayer or hears it or carries it, will never die a sudden death, nor be drowned, nor will poison take effect on them. They will not fall into the hands of the enemy nor be burned in any fire, nor will they be defeated in battle.

Make this prayer known everywhere.

"Ray Of Light"

[Verse 1
Maybe I'm the sky at night I wonder
So my tears of mourning sink beneath the sea
She's got horse if a universe gone quickly
For the call of thunder threatens everyone

[Chorus]

And I feel like I just got home
And I feel
And I feel like I just got home
And I feel…

Faster than the speeding light she's flying
Trying to remember where it all began
She's got herself a little piece of heaven
Waiting for the time when Earth shall be as one

[chorus]

Quicker than a ray of light
Quicker than a ray of light
Quicker than a ray of light

[verse]

And I feel
Quicker than a ray of light
Then gone for
Someone else shall be there
Through the endless years

She's got herself a universe
She's got herself a universe
She's got herself a universe

And I feel
And I feel
And I feel like I just got home
And I feel

Quicker than a ray of light she's flying
Quicker than a ray of light I'm flying

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine and I'd like to test it, just to make sure it works. How can I do that?

Presumably, you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both.

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one page fax to 1-855-350-1239 (a toll-free number in the United States). When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to [illegible] — it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a larger version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero. This site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

Re: Ooma Telo Fax Issues

by daet » Fri Oct 02, 2009 5:05 am

I can send faxes using the Telo. My Telo is after the router, and my fax machine is a Brother MFC 7820N. My router does QoS for the Telo (500 kbps up/down). I do use *93P (pause) as a dialing prefix. I've sent up to 6 page faxes.

There may be an issue with receiving faxes through Telo, as I am unable to receive faxes.

If you're using HP's fax test service, then a successful send is confirmed by their responding with a fax sent to you.

There is another test to see if sending faxes works. Send a fax to 1-510-545-0990, and after a couple minutes po nt your browser to FaxToy. If you see a scan of your fax, then you know that at least sending works.

Also, although not recommended, I can send faxes at both standard and fine resolutions (which I think translate into 200x100 dpi and 200x200 dpi for my machine).

Hope this helps,

- There is a large overhead from the number of bytes needed for the extension header (4) and the possible padding that is needed at the end of the extension to round up to a four byte boundary (up to 3 bytes). For many applications this overhead is unacceptable

- Use of the header extension limits applications to a single redundant encoding. Unless further structure is introduced into the extension. This would result in further overhead.

For these reasons the use of RTP header extension to hold redundant audio encodings is disregarded.

The RTP profile for audio and video conferences [redacted] two possible schemes for assigning additional RTP payload types for redundant audio applications

1. A dynamic encoding scheme may be defined, for each combination of primary redundant payload types, using the RTP dynamic payload type range

2. A single fixed payload type may be defined to represent a packet with redundancy. This may then be assigned to either a static RTP payload type, or the payload type for this may be assigned dynamically.

It is possible to define a set of payload types that signify a particular combination of primary and secondary encodings for each of the 32 dynamic payload types provided. This would be a slightly restrictive yet feasible solution for packets with a single block of redundancy as the number of possible combinations is not too large. However the need for multiple blocks of redundancy greatly increases the number of encoding combinations and makes this solution not viable

A modified version of the above solution could be to decide prior to the [redacted] of a conference on a set of 32 encoding combinations

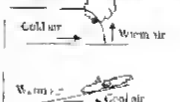
- Isobars close together = fast wind
- Air mass – region of atmosphere with similar temperature and humidity
- Front – boundary between two air masses
- Passage of a front – atmospheric pressure change in temperature and wind direction
- Cold fronts move fastest
- Weather moves NE in NY



- Plants – rough surface is the most. White surfaces reflect the most
- A good storage liquid of energy is a good radiator of energy
- Conduction – molecule to molecule (solids AND liquids and gases/atmosphere)
- Radiation – through space (sun) – exp: light
- Convection – due to differences in density (atmosphere-weather, oceans, mantle – plates move)
- Temperature goes DOWN during phase change (energy is either released or held)
  - Condensation: water vapor changes to liquid water (remove heat).
  - Boiling: liquid water changes to water vapor (add heat).
- Infrared radiation – reradiated from Earth – long wave radiation

Climates:

- Latitude – Low latitude = equal temperatures (tropical) and warm to hot temperatures
- Elevation – higher elevations = cooler temperatures
- Wind belts – from the south = warm, from west = moist
- Mountain barriers = windward = cool and moist / leeward = warm and dry
- Ocean currents – warm = warmer regions / cool = cooler temps
- Ultraviolet radiation – from sun – short wavelength
- Greenhouse gases – absorb long wave radiation – carbon dioxide & water vapor
- Diurnal expansion depends only on temperature.

- Tsunamis are faster than waves
- P waves travel through solids and liquids while S waves only through solids.
- Need 3 seismometers and locations to locate epicenter
- Age: Bottom is oldest, middle, top is youngest and fault is younger than rocks it cuts
- Unconformity gap in geologic time – erosion and/or no deposition
- Anticline/syncline: steep slopes. Bluffs/ridges: smooth/small slopes.
- Carbon 14 dates recent, once living objects. Uranium 238 dates older rocks
- Mountains/ridges: crust crushed, Trenches: crust destroyed
- Marine (sea) fossils on mountain tops: indicate that the land was beneath the sea
- Earth rotates west to east, (1 day = 24 hr). All celestial objects appear to move from the east to the west
- Evidence of rotation
  1. Coriolis effect – deflects to the right (N Hem.)
  2. Foucault Pendulum – changes direction of swing
- Earth revolves around the sun (one year). 1 day
- Evidence of revolution: Changing constellations each season
- Earth is closest to the sun in winter (perihelion)
- Big Bang – Earth center → Heliocentric – Sun center
- Rod shaft – to vary away from the observer
- The lower the sun the longer the shadow; noon shadow in NY points North

The Department of Public Works and our contractor JRM Hauling & Recycling of Peabody would like to remind you how to properly prepare your recyclables.

Please recycle all plastic containers numbered 1-7 All commingled materials (glass, metal and plastics) should be placed in your recycling bin, no need to sort. If you cannot fit all materials in the bin place the extra in plastic bags Do not put in paper bags

All paper paperboard and newspapers should be handled as usual place in paper bags or bundle Please make sure that cardboard is not no larger than 3 X 3 and bundled

The Public Works Department and JRM would like to thank you for your cooperation If you have any questions please contact the Department of Public Works at (781) 942 9077

STREET SWEEPING PROGRAM

What the Department of Public Works puts down for snow and ice control in the winter the Department of Public Works has to pick up in the spring

Residents are asked to sweep their sidewalks and tree lawns (the grass strip that often exists between the walk and the roadway) into the street. Please don't sweep the sand into a pile since that makes it more difficult for the sweepers to pick up the material. Instead, sweep it into a row along the curb We hope to start sweeping the week of March 23 2009 weather permitting

If you have any questions regarding the sweeping program please contact the Highway Divis on at (781) 942-9092 or the D P W Administration office at (781) 942 9077

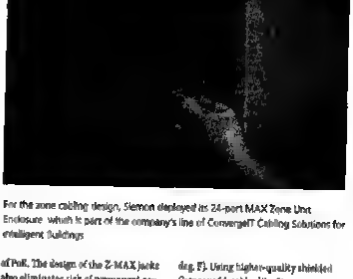
Test fax from Circuit ID

In addition to the patented jack contact geometry, Siemon's Z-MAX Category 6A system includes higher-quality shielded F/UTP cable that is qualified for mechanical reliability up to 75 degrees Celsius (167 degrees Fahrenheit). This is important because remote power applications like UPOE can cause heat buildup inside cable bundles that increases insertion loss (i.e., signal attenuation). Both TIA and ISO/IEC specify an insertion loss de-rating factor for use in determining the maximum channel length at temperatures above 20 deg. C (68

Siemon designs PoE lighting projects using a zone cabling approach because it supports a more-rapid deployment, Bob Allan, Siemon's global business development manager for intelligent buildings and strategic alliances, noted. "With zone cabling, the fixtures are easily connected using patch cords from outlets mounted in the zone unit enclosure instead of connected to an entire length of horizontal cabling from the switch in the TR."



For the zone cabling design, Siemon deployed its 24-port MAX Zone Unit Enclosure, which is part of the company's line of Connerge!T Cabling Solutions for intelligent buildings solid shielded patch cords used to make the final connection.

The Z-MAX Category 6A shielded system is designed to achieve superior transmission performance and provide maximum reliability for remote power applications such as UPOE. Unmating a jack-plug connection under a UPOE load produces an arc that erodes the gold plated jack-plug contact surfaces at the arcing location. When this erosion occurs in the area of the fully mated position, the result is an unreliable connection. Siemon's Z-MAX jacks are designed with a patented curved or "crowned" contact geometry that places arcing damage to both the plug and jack contacts away from the final mated position for superior reliability of PoE. The design of the Z-MAX jacks also eliminates risk of permanent contact deformation due to mechanical stress. In fact, Siemon's Z-MAX connecting hardware has been independently certified for compliance to the ISO-60512-99-001 standard, which was specifically developed to ensure reliable connections for remote powering applications deployed over balanced twisted-pair cabling.

deg. F). Using higher-quality shielded Category 6A cables like Siemon a Z-MAX Category 6A system can help overcome this obstacle, reducing any length de-rating and allowing the flexibility to support longer channel lengths where needed. In fact, Siemon's Z-MAX Category 6A shielded cable requires less than one-fifth the length de-rating than minimally compliant Category 6A UTP cables.

Presumably, you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both:

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1-888-877-1655 (a toll-free number in the United States.) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax Toy — it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero; this site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

A man received an e-mail from his neighbor which said:

"Sorry Jim, but I have been taking advantage of your wife .. day and night whenever you've not been at home. In fact, probably more than you. I'm confessing now because I feel really guilty. I hope you will accept my sincerest apologies. I will ask your permission in the future."

Upon reading this, Jim gets his gun and without uttering a word he shoots his wife.

A few minutes later he receives another e-mail: "Sorry Jim: I meant 'will,' not 'wife.'"

Presumably, you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here?s how to do both:

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1-510-545-0990 (a number in Northern California.) When it?s finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax Toy http://faxtoy.net/ . It?s a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero. http://faxzero.com/ this site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring ? hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine, and I'd like to test it just to make sure it works. How can I do that?

Presumably, you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both.

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one page fax to 1-859-330-1270 (a toll-free number in the United States.) When it is finished transmitting, point your web browser to FaxZero.com — it's a free web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero.com. This site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

No Cost Language Services. You can get an interpreter. You can get documents read to you and some sent to you in your language. For help, call us at the number listed on your ID card or 1-866-249-4844. For more help call the CA Dept. of Insurance at 1-800-927-4357. English

Servicios de idiomas sin costo. Puede obtener un intérprete. Le pueden leer documentos y que le envíen algunos en español. Para obtener ayuda, llámenos al número que figura en su tarjeta de identificación o al 1-866-249-4844. Para obtener más ayuda, llame al Departamento de Seguros de CA al 1-800-927-4357. Spanish

SECTION E

FUELING

⚠WARNING USE ONLY CRYSTAL CLEAR KEROSENE. NEVER USE GASOLINE, WHITE GAS, CAMP FUEL OR OTHER FLAMMABLE LIQUIDS. USE OF SUCH FUELS CAN RESULT IN AN EXPLOSIVE FIRE AND CAUSE SEVERE INJURY

Step 1:Lift Out the Capsule Fuel Tank
To fill with fuel, open the tank cover and lift out the capsule fuel tank (see Figure 17). Turn the tank upside down and remove the fuel cap. If the fuel cap is difficult to unscrew, press the valve in the center and remove.

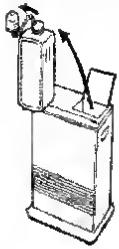

Fig 17

Step 2: Using a Siphon
A siphon is not included with your Monitor 422. You may obtain one from your Monitor dealer.
To operate a siphon, insert the straight tube into the kerosene container. Insert the siphon's flexible hose into the capsule fuel tank (see Figure 18).
Watch the fuel gauge on the capsule tank closely. As the tank begins to near the full level (see Figure 18), stop the flow by turning the vent knob on top of the siphon counter-clockwise. Remove the siphon slowly to allow excess kerosene to drain back into the container.

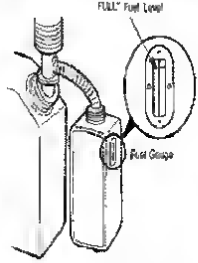

Fig. 18

Step 3: Reinstall the Capsule Fuel Tank
Replace and tighten the fuel cap. To assure proper fuel flow, be sure the cap is secured correctly.
Install the tank with the arrow pointing forward and close the tank cover (see Figure 19).

Thanks you for c[illegible] ideas and [illegible] of [illegible] landscaping in your new divisional headquarters We're pleased to submit our proposal herewith for the concept phase as agreed earlier

Since your available area is somewhat limited, we suggest a modular layout This concept emphasizes space conservation and yet still provides for a modern pleasing atmosphere.

Enclosed are two floor plans The first one will allow you to keep your present furniture The second was designed with the intention that our new space-saving modules be used Notice that the latter will provide for more spacious accommodations and/or room for additional personnel Also included are the specification sheets on these products

After you have had a chance to study our ideas I would like to set up a meeting during October to discuss any further refinements I will have my secretary make the arrangements. Please call me in the interim if you have any questions

Buckwheat Zydeco

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Buckwheat Zydeco is the stage name of Stanley Dural, Jr (born November 14, 1947) an American accordionist and zydeco musician. He is one of the few zydeco artists to achieve mainstream success. His music group is formally billed as Buckwheat Zydeco and His Son Partis Band, but often they perform as merely Buckwheat Zydeco.

The New York Times says "Stanley 'Buckwheat' Dural leads one of the best bands in America. A down-home and high-powered celebration, meaty and muscular with a fine-tuned sense of dynamics, propulsive rhythms, incendiary performances."[1] USA Today calls him "a zydeco trailblazer".[2]

Buckwheat Zydeco has performed with a large number of famous musicians from Eric Clapton (with whom Buckwheat also recorded) and U2 to The Boston Pops. The band performed at the closing ceremonies of the 1996 Summer Olympics to a worldwide audience of three billion people. Buckwheat performed for President Clinton twice, celebrating both of his inaugurations. The band has appeared on the Late Show with David Letterman, CNN, The Today Show, MTV, NBC News, CBS Morning News, National Public Radio's Weekend Edition

High-frequency noise detected

The fax modem has detected high-frequency noise on the telephone line. This noise might be caused by a DSL/ADSL connection and might affect the printer's ability to send and receive faxes.

Please check the items below then rerun this test.

If you have a DSL/ADSL service through your telephone company, connect a DSL/ADSL filter between the telephone wall jack and the printer. The DSL filter removes the digital signal that can interfere with the printer so the printer can communicate correctly with the phone line. For setup information, see the documentation provided with the printer.

NOTE: If you have a DSL/ADSL line and you do not connect the DSL/ADSL filter, you cannot send and receive faxes with the printer.

If you encounter problems, contact your local service provider or vendor for further assistance.

If you do not have a DSL/ADSL service, check the sound quality of the phone line by plugging a phone into the telephone wall jack and listening for static or other noise. For more information, contact your telephone company.

Note: Your printer might still be able to send and receive faxes, but at a slower speed.

If you do not have a DSL/ADSL service, check the sound quality of the phone line by plugging a phone into the telephone wall jack and listening for static or other noise. For more information, contact your telephone company.

If you are using a private branch exchange (PBX), you might be able to send and receive faxes successfully. If so, disregard the Fax Line Noise Test results on this page.

Refer to your User Guide for more information on the fax test and settings.

WALL STREET JOURNAL

The Charter School Performance Breakout

By Kiel Straenaloer

Many have been puzzled by New York Mayor Bill de Blasio's skepticism toward charter schools, his calls for ending space-sharing and charging them rent, and his $210 million cut of a construction fund important to the schools. Education reformers are also anxious about the failure of President Obama and Education Secretary Arne Duncan to defend charter schools in the face of those prominent reversals of New York City policy. Is this just about teacher-union politics—or are there perhaps legitimate performance reasons for tapping the brakes on charter schools in public education today?

The first thing to remember about charter schools is how recent an invention they are. Born in the 1990s, it wasn't until 2006 that total enrollment reached a million children—out of 55 million pupils in the country. More than half of the charters in New York City are less than five years old.

With huge waiting lists for every available seat, though, charters are now beginning to mushroom. Well before Mr. de Blasio faces re-election in 2017 charters will educate 10% of New York City's public-school students, and they already enroll a quarter of all pupils in some of the city's poorest districts. Nationwide, charter schools will enroll five million by the end of this decade.

But do they get results? Initial assessments were mixed. In the early days charter authorizing was very loose, nobody knew what worked best, and lots of weak schools were launched. The system has since tightened. In Washington, D.C., for instance, seven out of nine requests to open new charters are now turned down and at charters have been closed for failing to provide good results.

Nationwide 561 new charter schools opened last year, while 218 laggards were closed. Unlike conventional public schools, the charter system allows poorly performing schools to be squeezed out.

As charter operators have figured out how to succeed with children, they are doubling down on the best models. Successful charter schools have many distinctive features: longer school days and longer years, more flexibility and accountability for teachers and principals, higher expectations for students, more discipline and structure, more curricular innovation, more rigorous testing. Most charter growth today is coming from replications of the best schools. The rate of enrollment increase at high-performing networks is now 10 times what it is at single-campus "mom and pop" academies.

The combination of weak charters closing and strong charters replicating is having powerful effects. The first major assessment of charter schools by Stanford's Center for Research on Educational Outcomes found their results to be extremely variable, and overall no better than conventional schools as of many its follow-up study several years later found that steady closures and their replacement by proven models had pushed charters ahead of conventional schools. In New York City the average charter-school student now absorbs five months of extra learning a year in math, and one extra month in reading, compared with counterparts in conventional schools.

The oft-heard claim that charters perform no better than conventional schools is out of date and inaccurate.

Other reviews show similar results and performance advantages will accelerate in the near future. Charter schools tend to start small and then add one additional grade each year. Thus many charters in New York and elsewhere are just getting started with many children. As the schools mature, and weak performers continue to be replaced, charters will become even more effective.

But the results top charter schools are achieving are already striking. At KIPP, the largest chain of charters, 86% of all students are low-income and 95% are African-American or Latino, yet 83% go to college. In New York City, one of the academies Mr. de Blasio has denied additional space to is Success Academy's highest-performing middle school, with its 97th minority fifth-graders ranking No. 1 in the state in math achievement. It and the 31 other schools in its charter network have passing rates on state math and reading tests more than twice the citywide average.

Judged by how far they move students from where they start, New York charter schools like Success Academies, Uncommon Schools, Democracy Prep and Achievement First—and others like them across the country—are now the highest-achieving schools in America. The oft-heard claim that charters perform no better than conventional schools on the whole is out of date and inaccurate.

Remarkably, charters do all this on the cheap. In a city where conventional public schools spend $19,770 per student, the New York City Department of Education funded the public charter schools at only $13,527 per pupil in the latest year. That's right around the average disparity nationwide, where urban charter schools get 72% of what conventional public schools receive for each child enrolled.

When the next school year starts this fall, there will be nearly 7,000 charter schools in America, with the growth curve pointing sharply upward. Historians who look back at our era may describe charter schools as the most consequential social invention of this generation, with potent effects on economic mobility.

And chartering represents one of the great self-organizing movements of our age. It rose up in the face of strong resistance from the educational establishment. It has been powered by independent social entrepreneurs and local philanthropists. It is a response by men and women who refused to accept heartbreaking educational failures that the responsible government institutions showed no capacity to solve on their own.

Mr. Finnemaster is the author of From Promising to Proven: A Wise Giver's Guide to Expanding on the Success of Charter Schools, just published by The Philanthropy Roundtable.

FROM EXTENDED ENDOCRINE THERAPY[2]

BCI Predictive was developed and/or the included biomarkers and algorithms were discovered using archival tissue specimens. However, the study was not designed or powered to assess the benefit of extended endocrine therapy.

Test Description and Clinical Evidence
BCI provides two distinct biomarker signatures gene expression (quantitative RT PCR) signatures: BCI Prognostic, and BCI Predictive.

BCI Predictive provides a prediction of likelihood o benefit from extended (>5 years) endocrine therapy (EET) Patient results for this test [illegible] HOXB13 IL17RB ratio was categorized into one of two groups: High Likelihood or Low Likelihood of Benefit. BCI Predictive is based on the HOXB13 IL17RB ratio as was validated in the NCIC CTG MA.17 trial.[2,3]

Intended Use/Limitations
The Breast Cancer Index (BCI) Risk of Recurrence & Extended Endocrine Benefit Test is intended for use in patients diagnosed with estrogen receptor-positive (ER+) lymph node-negative (N-) or lymph node positive (N+ with 1 3 positive nodes) early-stage, invasive breast cancer who are at distant recurrence. The BCI provides: 1) quantitative assessment of the likelihood of late (post-5 years) and overall (0-10 year) distant recurrence following up initial 5 years of endocrine therapy 2 N- patients or 0-3 years of endocrine therapy plus adjuvant chemotherapy N+ patients), and 3) predictions of likelihood of benefit from extension (5+ year) endocrine therapy BC results are adjunctive of the treating physician's workup. Treatment decisions should be made in collaboration with all other clinical findings. This test was developed and its performance characteristics determined by Biotheranostics, Inc. It has not been cleared or approved by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration. The test is used for clinical purposes. It should not be required as an investigational or for research. How this information is used to guide patient care is the responsibility of the physician. Biotheranostics is a certified under the Clinical Laboratory Improvement Amendments of 1988 to perform high complexity clinical laboratory testing.

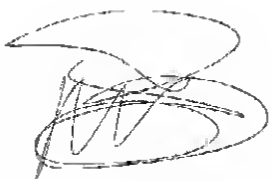
I Can FAX NOW!!!

This is my fur

There are many like it

But this one is mine



Zoom-Zoom

All children instinctively know it.

A few adults still remember it.

One unique car company refuses to outgrow it.

In grown-up language, it means the exhilaration and liberation that come from experiencing sheer motion.

But as usual, children put it much better and simply call it "Go Zoom-Zoom."

We practice it every day.

It's why we build the kind of cars we do.

Zoom-Zoom.

Can we re-awaken it in you today?

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine and I'd like to test it just to make sure it works. How can I do that?

Presumably you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1-888-877-1655 (a toll-free number in the United States.) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax Toy — it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero: this site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

Open Bike Initiative (OBI):

A Project to Develop, Pilot and Share an Open Source-inspired Model for Bicycle Sharing

OBI 1.0 Technical Guide

Version 1.0

December 18, 2013

Abstract: The Open Bike Initiative (OBI) is an ad hoc project focused on developing, piloting and disseminating an open source - inspired model for bike sharing. OBI was developed to address two primary issues that drove its creators to take action. 1. a corporate transportation system in need of alternatives to motorized transport and 2. a bike share market in need of greater choice to empower consumers. With these conclusions in mind, the OBI creators set out to use technology and the open source ethos to design a different type of bike sharing program. Due to technology challenges, the OBI team has created two types of bike sharing programs: a low-tech OBI 1.0 model and a more technologically sophisticated OBI 2.0 model. This white paper outlines and discusses the technical setup for OBI 1.0, which operates through text messaging, a few spreadsheets and a bit of human power. This guide is a companion document to the non-technical Open Bike Initiative 1.0 Implementation Guide, available at http://openbikeinitiative.org/.

The Challenge

On a daily basis, organizations around the globe struggle with how to apply their limited human capital to the task of vulnerability remediation assignment and tracking. All too often these same resources are required to devote their attention to other duties, allowing

$$\frac{\cancel{lbf} - ft}{\cancel{lbf}}_{\text{head}} \times \frac{lbf}{min}_{\substack{\text{weight}\\\text{flow}\\\text{rate}}} = \frac{lbf - ft}{min}_{\text{power}}$$

If I know how many pounds of liquid are displaced per unit time (this is proportional to flow rate in gallons per minute for example) then I know how much power is required since by multiplying head in lbf-ft/lbf by lbf/min, I get a unit of power in lbf-ft/min or foot-pounds per minute.

$$\frac{\cancel{lbf} - ft}{\cancel{lbf}}_{\text{head}} \times lbf_{\text{weight}} = lbf - ft_{\text{energy}}$$

We know there are 550 lbf-ft/s in a horsepower and 1.34 horsepower in a kilowatt. Therefore, when we know the height difference, or static head, we can immediately get a good idea of how much energy will be available however the analysis is not complete without the flow rate.

Typical micro-hydro installation

The following image shows a typical system that I have seen and which I am familiar with. The stream is located on a hill or incline. The riverbed is accessible and you require some sort of structure that will hold your intake pipe solidly. Remember that heavy rains bring high water levels and lots of activity within the stream, including the movement of large boulders that could disrupt, or destroy your intake if it is not built robustly enough.

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine and I'd like to test it. Just to make sure it works. How can I do that?

Presumably you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both.

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1-888-877-1655 (a toll-free number in the United States.) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax Toy — it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero: this site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

1986 Chevy conversion van stolen from my shed in Springfield on Sunday
DESCRIPTION dark grey color, side and back rear windows covered in silver duck tape, and sprayed over with black spray paint
I was planning on turning it into bus for my church, that's why the windows look like that people know me would back me up on that so I'm not worried about it

VERY PERSONAL private, personal items inside
1- two sets of police-style handcuffs very valuable steel locks. I have the key ,so you can't use them anyway, I would really love to have these back for sentimental reasons
2- There might also be some old magazines too maybe, but they aren't mine
My neighbor asked me to store them inside of my van so his wife wouldn'tcatch him looking at them, they are not mine, but I would like them back so he doesn't get in any kind of trouble for looking at that sort of thing We all sin, but god knows our heart! (corinthians 5-17)

There is some home-made like VCR tapes too that aren't mine beheve me, I go to church all the time, and people who know me will tell you that I would NEVER look at stuff like that, but it would be real nice if I could just return them to their rightful owner so people don't think I look at crap like that God knows that I don't and that's what's important.
Please let me know if you have seen this vehicle!! This really hurt my plans for the weekend any information would be appreciated! God Bless!

If you mail your test to us give us at least 5 days after mailing your test before calling us.

If you don't know the answer to a question and can't find the answer, skip it and come back to it later. Remember, you will not flunk this test just because you don't know the answer to a few questions. Read each question and all answers thoroughly before answering the questions. Take your time completing the test and good luck!

Interpage INTERPAGE NETWORK SERVICES INC.

Hello!

This is a sample test file which is being sent to you as per your request via the Interpage FreeFax(sm) Service.

This service is intended to provide a preliminary evaluation as to the quality and timeliness of Interpage's subscription fax service(s).

If you review the cover sheet which was transmitted with this fax, you will note the first letter of the name you had indicated in the TO: field of the FreeFax request page. This letter serves to correlate the fax request which you had sent with this trial fax transmission result.

This file is a sample MS Word file, many other file types are supported

If you have any questions regarding Interpage's OutFax(sm) Service, including the FaxUnlimited(sm) service with no-per or per-minute charges, please feel free to contact us at:

Phone. +1 (510) 315-2750 9AM to 5:30 PM M-F Pacific Time

E Mail Insl-support@interpage.net

Web: http://www.interpage.net

Thank you for your interest!

Notes: Due to the malicious use of the FreeFax service, Interpage will no longer transmit personalized text messages, only the above fixed sample message will be transmitted. You may establish a trial account for evaluative purposes by filling out the form located at: http://www.interpage.net/cgi-bin-fold/html, omitting any billing information, and clearly indicating a valid e-mail address and correct telephone number. Please call (510) 315-2750 for additional details.

2. This fax is not a solicitation nor is it an offer. It was sent by a visitor to interpage's web site who entered your destination number as a recipient of this test fax. A single destination may not receive more than two tests in a given week, however, if you feel that someone is sending you faxes in a spontaneous and abusive manner please call us at (510) 315-2750 and we will block your fax number from the FreeFax service.

If it comes from printing your problem is the laser unit or drum unit. most likely just some dust and/or toner spilled on the laser glass. Pull out the entire drum unit in the cavity of the machine there is a 1/2" strip of glass just below the yellow warning label wipe the glass clean

If your void area remains try cleaning the corona wire on the underside of the drum unit by sliding the blue block back and forth several times

If your faded print remains, dust and/or toner could be inside the laser unit - requiring service. Or it could just be a bad drum. start with wiping the glass.

At present a request [illegible] cards to a sensitometric computations run yields density card corresponding to densitometer readings. If the test code used involves E N D conversions, the [illegible] cards [illegible] through a separate conversion program to correspond [illegible] corresponding to individual strips are punched [illegible] desired.

I propo[illegible] density card output is requested plotted densities are punched out. In the normal case, [illegible] would simply be the average densities If the test code calls for E N D conversion, it would be the E N D densities that are punched out If the test breaks down, e g because of range check failure, we would get cards punched out for individual strips since individuals are plotted in that case

Introduction to Cascading Style Sheets

Cascading Style Sheets (CSS) are an increasingly common way for website developers to control the look and feel of their web pages. A style sheet allows the website developer to specify the size, font and color of text for an entire website without having to code the information in each page. Style sheets separate the style (or look and feel) of the document from the structure (or the content and ordering of information).

CSS is a powerful way for content developers to preserve the desired fonts, colors and text sizes of HTML documents. However, students with disabilities can also benefit from sites designed using CSS. Individual users can choose to apply their own style sheets to documents, overriding any other style sheets. For example, a person with low vision could modify every CSS-enabled website to display text in yellow on a black background, if those colors enable her to read the text.

However, be aware that CSS does not solve all accessibility problems. In fact, both the WC3 and Section 508 accessibility guidelines stipulate that, for a page to be accessible, the content must be easily understood with the style sheets turned off (i.e. if the user is utilizing an earlier Web browser that doesn't support style sheets, such as Lynx).

Defining External Styles

In earlier versions of HTML, the only way to display text in a given font style, color and size was to use the tag. For example, the following HTML coding would make this text appear as "Futura Extra Bold" in 24-point size red typeface:

Code	Result

Additionally, developers once used the  and  tags to display text as bold or italic. For example:

This text is in bold and italics</I> Ermes.

However, in HTML 4.0, the ,  and  tags have been deprecated, meaning that they should not be used on newly created/designed web pages. Also, the  tag was very difficult to use, because it had to be placed around every formatted piece of text. This made it difficult to change the look and feel of a website, because each  tag had to be changed individually.

Instead of these deprecated tags, developers should use CSS to define an "external" style sheet for setting font information across multiple pages, instead of resorting to the deprecated tags.

To build a style sheet, start with a text file with a ".css" extension (for example, "style.css"). Styles are defined within the ".css" file by specifying the tag ("p", "h1", etc.) and then placing all of the style preferences within curly-brackets ("{}").

Eggsactly a Dozen

A Simple Approach to Duodecimal Counting

by Prof. James Malone, Nassau Community College

With the advent of the computer numerals + systems with bases other than ten have become more than just fill in topic. Rather they are a matter to be examined with care and only by those entering the computer field but, by those of us who have just a passing interest in the computer however, its influence on so many facets of our lives.

To introduce the fundamental ideas of numerals on a system I have come across a presentation using the die that my dad owns so that students seem to find interest or and easy to grasp. I'd like to share it with you, making me known to originality. Here is the story I tell.

Many years ago I was trafficmen agent for one of the largest wholesale egg dealers in the Northeast United States. My job consisted mainly of see right I that each delivery truck that left our depot was directed correctly and was loaded with sufficient eggs. Each deliverer carried with his the order forms which had been picked up the previous afternoon by our salesmen. Since our deliveries were made between 6 in the night and 8 AM these orders had to be made exact the store managers had little chance to see the driver and even if they did there were no extra eggs on the truck to increase an order.

After some practice I discovered that order forms need not be picked up ahead of time but could be left taped on the doors of the refrigerators receiving deliveries. The drivers and I were all to exact make quite accurately the number of eggs each deliver would need to carry Our order form had the following configuration wherein twelve eggs equals one dozen twelve dozen equal one gross and twelve gross equal one crate in gross gross. So a store manager might leave an order blank which would look like:

CRATES	GROSSES	DOZENS	EGGS
3	4	0	0

which calls for a delivery of 5760 eggs. Because the business was owned by the same family for three generations, there were a few customers who were accorded, the privilege of hours delivery. Many of them were elderly and their orders were small. One of these might be which calls for a delivery of not one eggs.

Wanting to simplify our systems, I decided to eliminate the order form completely and have each customer simply leave a slip of paper on but does it do it a piece write a five digit number The 1st number right would tell the driver how many house eggs he should take the digit in the left indicated the numbers of dozens and so on our first order would appear as 34000 and on a second as 00014. This would suit almost one of our private hens customers the driver left three hundred eggs! The customer was hate the driver determine and I was satisfied.

Looking at the order made even right clear Here is what was taped to the door

The customer wanted two dozen and ten house eggs. The driver very correctly interpreted his order as no house eggs, one dozen and two gross. Something had to be done!

His problem was one of by the conventional numerals we have ten and eleven. So we the management and I invented symbols to represent those numbers when they were needed We chose X to represent ten and E to represent eleven Our form order would now be:

002X

A experimental order would me a parcel as 12E0. The store manager and my driver both understand that to mean an order of nine crate, two grosse, ten dozen and nine and eggs.

We had invented, or we thought, a new numeration system. Our digits" with the corresponding decimal equivalent is were

0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11
0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	X	E

To conform Thats twelve numerals in the "base ten numeral naming the same number we, right look cards "base twelve digit and multiplied by the "base ten" value. The numbers represented by "X" would be represented by 10. ...the we arrived at by multiplying 2 by 144, and the 5 by 10, 10, and the X (ten) by 1 and then adding the three products.

The correct + base ten numeral to the base twelve numeral naming the same number was, for us, some what more complicated. We had to decide how many crates (1728 eggs) we could make up from the "base ten egg remainder of the number. Then subtract that from the total number of eggs. From the eggs left, we would make up as many gross (144) as possible from the remaining eggs as any dozens as possible and the number of eggs left over to the nearest unit digit. For instance, the number of eggs represented by 3200 to also represented by 1E88 base ten. This is arrived at by noting that one crate (1728) can be formed from 3200 leaving 1472. Into (E) gross can be formed leaving 128 to be counted. Ten Next to make up eleven (E) dozens leaving (8) to be eaten single.

I was disgusted, some two later to learn of a simple method for converting a base ten numeral to it equivalent in my other base (see "An Introduction to Dozenal Counting").

This story having been told, I introduce the name duodecimal (it seem exemplar of a conversion from one base to the other and finish up with some problems in addition and multiplication. Introducing the students to number bases other than ten or twelve. I now reads if it complished. If by an to maybe able to "let go of" base ten and begin to "think" in any be a that may be suggested. I have used this approach for ten or years and to also have found a student + of this to reach an understanding of number bases.[1]

This document was transcribed in January 2011 by Michael Thomas D. Wenger. The [illegible] symbols used to represent decimal twelve (X), decimal eleven (E), 10-digit-ten, & 12-digit-eleven) from the "bulk" numerals (X = 10-digit-ten, E = 12-digit-eleven). All tables and figures were updated.

Presumably you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both:

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1-888 877-1655 (a toll-free number in the United States.) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax Toy — it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero; this site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

RAMON ORTEGA'S LAST RIDE

THE LIFE & TIMES OF RAMON ORTEGA

All accounts agree that Ramon Ortega was a brawny man of great physical power. One of those who remembers is Charles Ruiz, a man who spent much of his boyhood in the upper Sespe. 77 years into life, he has seen many changes in southern California but thinks the Sespe changed least.

For many years before the coming of the road, Charles' father owned a ranch in the Chorro Chiquito, several miles downstream from Ramon Ortega's [which was at Potrero Seco, west of the summit of Hwy 33, near the headwaters of Sespe Creek.] During the 1920's, Charles Ruiz was the Forest Service's horseback patrolman for the Sespe Hotsprings area. He eventually settled in Ojai.

For 13 years he and his wife lived at the estate of Krishnamurti, where Charles managed the famous philosopher's groves and gardens.

Charles and his wife now live in the caretaker's house at the Smith Hobson estate. The Hobsons were the beef baroons who brought most of the cattle brought down from the Sespe and Cuyama ranges. The two main houses of the Smith Hobson estate are now Ojai's City Hall.

The mind of Charles Ruiz contains a very accurate map of the mountains of northern Ventura County. He knew the exact location of Ramon Ortega's death. "He was a very strong man you know. He could make a horse do anything that he wanted it to. When I was just a young boy, my father took me to Rob1ar Canyon and told me: 'This is where Ramon Ortega died.' It's strange that Ramon was off his horse; my father said Ramon used to never get off his horse."

Ramon could ride just like a burr to a horse's tail according to his nephew, Ranger J.D. Reyes of the Pine Mountain-Cuyama neck of the woods. He was the boss of his own saddle and reputedly could not even be thrown by running a horse under a waist high rope suspended between two trees.

Each autumn Ramon rode in the whooping mountain round-up which brought cattle down from the upper Sespe. They were driven over Ortega Hill through the steep cliffs of Matilija Canyon, across the Ojai Valley and into Stony Flats, now known as Casitas Springs. Even among the colorful Reyes brothers and the cowboys of "Eduardo" Canet, Ramon was considered as the toughest and most daring of the backcountry gentlemen around. Grizzly bear roping was his favorite sport.

Bear lassoing required exceptional riders and horses. Once several vaqueros had successfully immobilized a grizzly with reatas of woven rawhide, the unfortunate creature was either killed or sold for the bullfights. The last grizzly bear to be captured alive in California was sent from Ventura County to the San Francisco Zoo in 1889. Named Old Monarch, he died in 1911 weighing in at 1127 pounds. Bear roping was not as destructive as strychnine poisoning, but it made a contribution to the near extinction of California's state land animal, the magnificent Ursus horribilis.

THE DEATH OF RAMON ORTEGA

On November the 21st of 1978, I began a series of telephone conversations with Mrs. Margaret MacNeil Ortega, the wife of Ventura's retired postmaster. It was Mrs. Ortega who first told me that Ramon's full name was Jose Ramon Ortega. His wife's name was Candelaria Dominguez Ortega. One of his 5 sons was Alfredo, the father of Margaret's husband Emilio Cyprian Ortega. Mrs. Ortega has access to some fairly comprehensive notes which she is compiling for her family. These include information taken from her husband's dictation as he related to her his grandfather's last ride. [These were compared with records from other individuals and the Ventura Free Press also.]

Canceling PMI based on the current value

You also have the option to cancel PMI based on the current value and investor requirements. For this option, you must meet the following requirements:

- You must reach the required LTV ratio of 75% based on the current appraised value.
- You must have had no 30 day late payments in the last 12 months, no 60-day late payments in the last 24 months, and your mortgage must be current with no past due payments.
- You must have closed on your mortgage at least two years ago. For your reference, your mortgage closing date is 02/22/13.

To cancel PMI based on this option:

- Have an appraisal done at your expense by Reis Valuation, our appraisal vendor, to determine the current value. See the enclosed frequently asked questions for more information about ordering an appraisal.
- If your property has increased in value to $[redacted], your LTV ratio will be 75% and you may use this option to cancel PMI.

^ par. 14 (Ex. 18:26) So they judged the people when cases arose. A difficult case they would bring to Moses, but every minor case they would judge.

^ par. 14 (Rev. 7:14) So right away I said to him: "My lord, you are the one who knows." And he said to me: "These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

^ par. 14 (1 Pet. 2:17) Honor men of all sorts. Have love for the whole association of brothers, be in fear of God, honor the king.

^ par. 15

(2 Tim. 3:1) But know this, that in the last days critical times hard to deal with will be here.

^ par. 15 (1 Thess. 5:6-9) So, then, let us not sleep on as the rest do, but let us stay awake and keep our senses. For those who sleep sleep at night, and those who get drunk are drunk at night. But as for us who belong to the day, let us keep our senses and put on the breastplate of faith and love and the hope of salvation as a helmet. For because God assigned us, not to wrath, but to the acquiring of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ.

^ par. 16

(1 Pet. 2:12) Maintain your conduct fine among the nations, so that when they accuse you of being wrongdoers they may be eyewitnesses of your fine works and, as a result, glorify God in the day of his inspection.

^ par. 16 (Rom. 3:23) For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,

^ par. 16 (1 Tim. 6:12) Fight the fine fight of the faith; get a firm hold on the everlasting life for which you were called and you offered the fine public declaration in front of many witnesses.

^ par. 17

(Phil. 2:5) Keep this mental attitude in you that was also in Christ Jesus,

^ par. 17 (Mark 1:38) But he said to them: "Let us go somewhere else, into the [places] nearby, so that I may preach there also, for this is why I have come."

^ par. 17 (Mark 13:10) Also, in all the nations the good news has to be preached first.

^ par. 17 (John 7:16) Jesus, in turn, answered them and said: "What I teach is not mine, but belongs to him who sent me.

^ par. 17 (John 8:28) Jesus then said: "After you have lifted up the Son of man, then you will know that I am he and that I do not do a thing of my own initiative, but just as the Father taught me, I speak these things.

^ par. 18

(Phil. 2:9-11) For this very reason God exalted him to a superior position and kindly gave him the name that is above every other name, 10 so that in the name of Jesus every knee should bend—of those in heaven and those on earth and those under the ground, 11 and every tongue should openly acknowledge that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father.

^ par. 18 (1 Cor. 15:28) But when all things will have been subjected to him, then the Son himself will also subject himself to the One who subjected all things to him, that God may be all things to everyone.

^ par. 18 (Matt. 28:19) Go, therefore, and make disciples of people of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the holy spirit,

^ par. 18 (Gal. 6:10) So, then, as long as we have the opportunity, let us work what is good toward all, but especially toward those related to us in the faith.

^ par. 19

(Heb. 12:1) So, then, because we have such a great cloud of witnesses surrounding us, let us also throw off every weight and the sin that easily entangles us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us,

^ par. 19 (Col. 3:23, 24) Whatever you are doing, work at it whole-souled as for Jehovah, and not for men, 24 for you know that it is from Jehovah you will receive the inheritance as a reward. Slave for the Master, Christ.

FIGURE 1-2 shows a client using an IMAP4 client session to read mail, and an SMTP implementation to send mail. (They can be from the same or different vendors.)

The Service Provider's Guide shows you how to develop and package a JavaMail service provider for use by clients. It is aimed at developers working with the JavaMail API and the JavaMail API Specification.

This guide covers

- Creating messages
- Storing and retrieving messages
- Sending a message
- Getting notification with a client (for example, notifying the client of new mail)
- Packaging your implementation

The descriptions of the first three tasks show how to subclass the appropriate abstract classes and implement their abstract methods. In addition, the task descriptions point out the small subset of methods that have default implementations that you might choose to override for the sake of efficiency.

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine and I'd like to test it. Just to make sure it works. How can I do that?

Presumably, you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both.

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1-888-877-1655 (a toll free number in the United States.) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax Toy — it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero. This site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring... hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

To continue to achieve and educate in the practice of the culinary profession

EXPERIENCE

Including a certificate in culinary arts and a certificate in safe food handling issued by Island Harvest, my experience ranges in twelve years of fine dining high end banquets catering and charity events with critically acclaimed restaurants in New York City and Long Island.

Starting as a prep /stocks and sauces, desserts and garde manger cook then being swiftly promoted to the line appetizers pasta saute, broiler, banquet, tournant, sous chef and head chef in restaurants seating fifty to two thousand during dinner service. I gained extensive knowledge being in charge of a kitchen through the supervision and training of my staff. Daily and holiday special menus utilized my seasonal produce inventory and skills in meat and whole fish fabrication while creating new and innovative plate presentations. Restaurants have included La Mangeoire, La Colombe d'Or, James Beard House, Tavern on The Green, The Paramount Hotel and institutional cooking for Retirment homes and homes for mentally challenged young adults. I have had the honor of working with many different mentors in the industry such as Patrick Clark, David Bouley, Micheal Otsuka and Victor Flores to name a few along with well trained team members through out the years. This vast experience has also led me to becoming a Chef Instructor at Sur La Table, Bloomingdale's, AlClad cookware and The Long Island Culinary Academy.

EDUCATION

New York Restaurant School, Feb 1993 – March 1995
Certificate in Culinary Arts. Graduated in the top four of my class with exceptional training in all aspects of cooking, knife skills, sanitation, purchasing and food cost control.

(distemper hepatitis, parainfluenza, parvo virus)
Leptospirosis 1 year vaccination
Bordetella (kennel cough) 1 year vaccination

A completed Certificate of Vaccination form #671 must be signed by a licensed Veterinarian and turned in to the 4H dog leader to be able to bring your dog to training sessions and show at 4H show. This is part of the completion of the dog project.

Vaccinations must remain current. Any dog whose vaccinations expire must be revaccinated and have an updated form turned into 4H leader 4H dog workbooks are available at 4H extension office. Work books go by school grades 3-5, 6-8,9-12. Must complete one activity in each chapter and fill out workbook sheet (Dog club will be working out exercises in week an during dog club meetings) Must be turned into 4H dog leader by the completion date.

4H DOG RECORD SHEET

Available from 4H dog leader Bi fold 4H form #3808W (where the 4Her keeps a diary of expenses and time spend on the dog project. This is an on going diary to be turned in to the 4H dog leader by the completion date

The turning in of these papers to the official 4H dog leader by the established date is the completion of the 4H dog project. The showing of the dog at the county fair is encouraged but not necessary to complete the educational experience. The showing of the dog is a privilege and is voluntary on the part of the eligible 4H member

TOP TRAINER AWARD

An award given within the Paw Prints 4H Dog Club to the 4Her whom earns the most points within the 4H dog club. Example of points attendance of meetings, turning in paperwork early, being an officer of the club, volunteering, ect. These are added as the score from the 4H dog show. Top winner in Junior, Intermediate, and Senior will be given.

EQUIPMENT NEEDED

6 foot leather or nylon leash, training collar flat buckle collar (will discuss how to measure the dog neck for size and how to order at first couple meetings) Biscuits/treats/dog treats will be needed in May (will have for sale then) Basic 4-Her has old backpack or dog with their name on it for all dog equipment and treats. Also the 4Her must wear the appropriate footwear to all the training sessions (no sandals, flipflop ect)

PARENT VOLUNTEERS

There is many ways for you to help and make this a great experience for your child. Volunteer at the training sessions, set up equipment, help at 4H dog clinic or mock show or even help with photographing the club activities. See a 4H dog leader to sign up.

TEST

Dear Resident,

Margaret Anderson (1962), a bellwether in experimental research on psi and creativity, stated the challenges posed by this area very well in her presidential address to the Parapsychological Association:

> Whether the understanding of one unknown as ESP is will or will not be achieved by working on it with another unknown such as creativity, will be settled by experimentation not discussion. Regardless of the road we choose to travel, we all share the road blocks of the seemingly infinite number of variables complicating and frustrating our path. Their removal is of course our challenge (p. 291)

Indeed a progressive and systematic research program is needed to address the myriad questions before us. Are there specific characteristics of artistically gifted populations that will clarify the relationship between psi and creativity? Do aspects of their formal training and life experiences explain why artists appear well suited for psi research? Do unconscious mental processing and imagery induction techniques play a significant role in the psi experiences of creative populations? Such questions, addressed under well-controlled experimental conditions, promise to shed much needed light on the replication problem in parapsychology. In the process, we may gain important insights into the nature of exceptional human abilities. These too are our challenges.

Right: The computed curvature at the sample points, and the true curvature of the function. The value of the integral approximation is 56.6265 degrees (converted from radians).

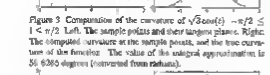

Figure 4 Same as above but with a denser sampling. The value of the integral approximation is 89.9600 degrees (converted from radians).

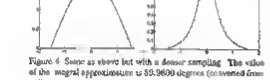

Figure 5 Same as above but with an even denser sampling. The value of the integral approximation is 90.0001 degrees (converted from radians).

2.2. Smoothness of a set of Points

In previous sections we showed that we can accurately measure the smoothness of a curve by evaluating (12) when the points and their normals are known. In practice the normals $\mathbf{n}_p$ are not known but will be computed by optimizing the tangent lines. However equation (10) shows that if the sampling rate is small enough then optimizing over α_p will yield the correct solution. This can be seen by noting that if we minimize (10) with respect to α_p then the dominant term $\mathbf{p}_p^T \alpha(t_1)(t_2 - t_1)$ (assuming sufficiently high sampling rate) vanishes if $\mathbf{n}_p$ is perpendicular to the tangent $\dot{\alpha}(t_1)$. Hence $\mathbf{n}_p$ will approach the true normal when the sampling distance approaches zero. Therefore we take as our measure of smoothness of a set of points. Here $\mathcal{N}(i)$ represents some predefined neighborhood of the point i. In equation (13) the neighborhood of i is $i+1$ however for general point clouds the connectivity of the points is not known and therefore the neighborhood will in practice consist of nearby located points (see section 2.4). Note that since we are assuming that the points p_i are fixed the above min imization problem is separable and each normal could be optimized by itself. However in general we will also assume that the points are noisy in which case p_i will also depend on its normal.

$$\min_{\{\{\mathbf{n}_{p_1}, \ldots, \mathbf{n}_{p_m}\} \; \|\mathbf{n}_{p_i}\|=1, \; \forall i\}} \sum_{i=1}^{m} \sum_{j \in \mathcal{N}(i)} \frac{|\mathbf{p}_i - \mathbf{p}_j|}{|\mathbf{n}_i \quad \mathbf{p}_i|} \tag{17}$$

Figure 6 shows the solutions obtained when optimizing (17) for two different sampling rates. Here we are using both forward and backward distances, and therefore (17) should evaluate to approximately 120 degrees (when converted from radians). Even at the crude sampling rate of Figure 6, the sum in (17) is close to the true value.

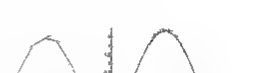

Figure 6 Estimated tangent p anes for exactly measured data points a two different sampling rates. Left: The energy of the solution is 2.0221 (which corresponds to 115.8578 degrees). Right: The energy of the solut on is 2.0864 (which corresponds to 119.5419 degrees)

2.3 Energy

Next we consider the full problem of regularizing 2D-point clouds. We consider $\hat{p}_i$ to be noisy measurements of the true points p_i. We will estimate the p_i and the curve implicitly represented by its tangent lines $\hat{t}_i = (\mathbf{n}_{p_i} \; d_{p_i})$ by minimizing the pairwise energy

$$\min \sum_i \sum_{j \in \mathcal{N}(i)} w_{ij} E_s(\hat{t}_i, \hat{t}_j) + \mu \sum_i E_d(\hat{t}_i) \tag{18}$$

Here the minimum is taken over the set of tangent lines.

The data term E_d measure s the quality of the estimation of p_i. As mentioned before th s term is application dependent, and should be chosen depending on what type of noise we may expect. In the 2D case we will use

$$E_d(\hat{t}_i) = (\mathbf{n}_{p_i} \hat{p}_i + d_{p_i})^2 \tag{19}$$

which is the squared distance between the measured 2D point and its orthogonal projection on the tangent line. It is straight forward to use other data terms that would prefer certain directions and positions. For example in the 3D-case a data term based on photoconsistency could be used. However in this work we are mainly interested in 3D point clouds and we do not assume that any other knowledge than the point measurements themselves are available

Hello

THE STORY BEHIND

Once in awhile, a dog comes into your life and changes everything. For me, that dog was ERNIE.
Ernie and I bonded while I was volunteering at the shelter. Although, he had been abused and abandoned, he was trusting of me. Some thought it was hopeless to try to teach him manners and that "no one would want such a wild coonding". Ernie and I knew better.
I found out he was on the euthanasia list for that very day, so I rushed up and fostered him! We didn't have time for the normal meet and greet with my other dogs, but I just couldn't let him be put down. Admittedly, it did not go well. One of my dogs would just not accept him. Ernie had to stay out in our dog run during the day and the garage in his crate at night. I spent countless hours outside with him, teaching him to walk on a leash. We spent countless hours at night together, in the garage ...playing with his toys and eating snacks and eventually, going to sleep in his crate with all his blankets. I would sit by him, rubbing his back (his favorite thing) and talk with him, reassuring him that things would work out. The look in his eyes told me that he had all the faith in the world that, yes, indeed, they would.
I had him vetted and neutered and got him healthy...he was only about 50 lbs when we met.....you could count his ribs ..he turned into a big ol' healthy boy of 80 lbs!
As the months went by, I became so discouraged....being outside and in the garage is not the life meant for a dog....it became painfully apparent that I needed to find him a forever home. Ernie became my source of comfort and reassurance that things would work out.

SUBJECT DEFENDANT TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE "SEXUALLY VIOLENT OFFENDERS ACT" (CHAPTER 916, FLORIDA STATUTES). DEFENDANT UNDERSTANDS THAT IF A COURT OR JURY DETERMINES HIM/HER TO BE A SEXUALLY VIOLENT PREDATOR UNDER THIS ACT, IT WILL RESULT IN HIS/HER CIVIL COMMITMENT TO THE DEPARTMENT OF CHILDREN AND FAMILY SERVICES UNTIL SUCH TIME AS IT IS DETERMINED THAT HIS/HER PERSONALITY HAS CHANGED SO THAT IT IS SAFE FOR HIS/HER TO BE AT LARGE.

I understand that if the offense to which I am entering a plea is a criminal offense for possession or sale of, trafficking in or conspiracy to possess, sell, or traffic in illegal drugs under Chapter 893, Florida Statutes, a conviction can result in the revocation of my driver's license by the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles (Sections 322.055, 322.056 and 322.27, Florida Statutes).

I am aware and fully understand the charge(s) against me and that a plea of guilty admits the truth of the charge, a plea of not guilty denies the charge and a plea of Nolo Contendere does not contest the charge. My attorney has discussed with me the defense(s) that might be available to the charge(s) and given me the benefit of his advice. I am satisfied that my attorney has represented me to the best of his ability and has done all that can be expected of him. I wish to enter my plea to the offense(s) as set forth above because I am guilty of/do not contest the charge(s) and I have no other reason. I stipulate and agree that there are sufficient facts that exist to support the charge(s) to which I am entering my plea. I do not require the State to tell the Judge the facts upon which the charge is based before the Judge accepts my plea, and I agree that the Judge may rely upon any probable cause statement or violation of probation affidavit in the court file for a factual basis to justify the accentance of my plea or admission.

I acknowledge and agree that no one, including my attorney, has made any promises or assurances to me regarding the amount of gain time I will receive if my sentence involves prison or jail. I have not been promised, nor has it been suggested that I will be rewarded in any manner, or that I will be given probation or leniency other than the terms as set forth above in return for my plea. I understand that the Florida Department of Corrections is solely responsible for awarding gain time or any type of early release. I understand that any information I have received concerning gain time or early release is strictly an estimate and that it is not part of any plea discussion or agreement. No person has used any threats, force, pressure or intimidation to induce me to enter the plea outlined above.

I fully realize that by entering this plea I am waiving and relinquishing my right to trial by jury or the Court; my right to confront and cross examine my accusers; my right to subpoena and have witnesses testify in my behalf; my right to remain silent or to testify in my own behalf; and the right to have the State prove the truth of the charge(s) including each element, beyond and to the exclusion of every reasonable doubt before I could be found guilty. I understand that I am waiving and forever relinquishing my right to assert any affirmative defenses which might be available to me including but not limited to any defense asserting that I did not commit the crime(s) to which I am entering my plea.

I understand that if I am placed on probation or community control and violate the terms, I could receive the maximum sentence for the charges for which I am on probation or community control.

I understand that a felony nolle pros could be used as a basis for future sentencing enhancement under Florida Statute 775.084, as a habitual offender, a

TEST 3 BALANCE CHECK

Stand on a flat, sturdy surface with your arms folded across your chest. While standing on your preferred leg, raise the other foot off the floor a few inches, making sure the foot remains parallel to the floor and isn't resting against the standing leg. Time how long you can keep the leg raised before it touches the floor as you lose your balance (or after 30 seconds). Do the test twice more with your eyes open and once with them closed.

What you want to see

The ability to hold your balance with your eyes closed. Studies suggest that those who can perform the task have lower rates of mortality from all causes than those who cannot.

If you see ...

That you can't hold the position at all with your eyes closed: Carry on talking to your doctor about it. In a study of 53-year-old men and women conducted at University College London, those who could balance on one leg with their eyes closed for more than 10 seconds were more likely to survive over the next 15 years of the study.

TEST 4 HAIR CHECK

Sure, it would be great to feel those long tresses blowing in the wind once again, but if your hair has become as sparse as, say, hit songs by Bob Dylan, don't get too concerned. Most people's hair gets thinner after 50, and it's usually a result of genetic and hormonal changes rather than poor nutrition or some other factor. But sometimes our hair can indicate that something larger is at play.

What you want to see

Little if any sudden change. If you are under stress, had major surgery, experienced sudden weight loss or started a new medication (for high blood pressure or arthritis and more), these may increase hair thinning.

If you see ...

Extra hair on your brush or in the sink: If your locks lose density or clay over three to six months, you may have an underlying condition such as anemia, iron loss or thyroid disease. "You'll notice more hair in your brush, in the shower drain and on your pillow," says dermatologist Chris G. Adigun of the Dermatology & Laser Center of Chapel Hill, in North Carolina.

TEST 5 HEART CHECK

Place two fingers on the side of your windpipe. Count the beats for 15 seconds, then multiply by four to get your beats per minute (bpm).

What you want to feel

A heart rate of 60 to 100 bpm. (Very fit people may have rates below 60 bpm.)

If you feel ...

A rate of more than 100 bpm: Consult your doctor. A rapid heart rate, or tachycardia, may be caused by a number of factors, including alcohol, anxiety or cardiac issues.

Your heart rate rising at work or when you think about work: You might want to consider whether your stress levels are too high. Studies have linked work stress to diabetes, obesity and heart disease.

SEVEN POINT PLAN FOR EVANGELISM

A Model developed from King Hezekiah from the account of 2 Chronicles 28, 2 9

1 Be purposeful- the agenda has to be clear in its reasoning.

- ★ This should be clear- this is not a fundraiser, a way to get new members but to introduce to Jesus

2 Leadership has to be on board

- ★ This is vital as the Pastor cannot do all most or some by themselves.
  - ■ Jesus had 12 disciples to help, why should the Pastor do it alone?

3. Leadership must be trained-

- ★ Just because you have done it previously doesn't mean its correct

4 It starts with the Pastor not includes them

- ★ This is a "top down directive. It is not a upward movement. It must begin with the Pastor and transferred to the leadership. If not the frustration and burn out level will be extensive
- ★ It must be evident in their life- you cannot lead what you do not believe

5 Pray! -encouragement/ steadfastness.

- ★ Some of the areas needed to be changed out, but it takes prayer and determination.
  - ■ Why not pray at the beginning?

Prayer is activated when Faith is extended FIRST

- ★ It does not mean everyone will be on board, but prayer will keep you encouraged through all the opposition

6. Dont forget to reach out for help from folk who may be away

- ★ Hezekiah extended the invitation to EVERYONE
- ★ Do not change your vision and direction because those against you
- ★ Stay prayerful when those who were defeated before threaten your success now

7 Learn to praise again- whether the harvest is one or one hundred

- ★ Praise comes despite what you see because God's work does not only begin when you notice it.

Enumeration of Circulating Tumor Cells by OncoCEE™ D

Blue-DAPI (nuclei) Green-HER2 Green(AF7)

Results should be correlated and interpreted in conjunction with all other pertinent clinico-pathological findings. Clinical investigators believe that presence of circulating tumor cells (CTCs) in blood is an indicator of metastasis. Metastasis is a complex multistep process that includes epithelial-mesenchymal transition (EMT), in which tumor cells are characterized by loss of cell adhesion, expression of E-cadherin, acquisition of mesenchymal markers, increased cell motility, and invasiveness. 1) HER2 is recognized as an important predictive and prognostic tumor in breast cancer (2) HER2 broadly predictive of a potential response to HER2 targeted agents such as lykerb and trastuzumab (3)

*CTC is defined as CD45- DAPI+ CK+ or CK- cell

Dear [Recipient Name],

I am writing to request a meeting to discuss my salary. I have been an employee of [Company Name] for nearly [number of years] years, and I feel that my experience and skills, in addition to my increased responsibilities, warrant a raise.

Throughout my tenure at [Company Name], I have advanced from a [job title] to a [job title]. While my responsibilities have increased greatly during this time, my salary has not. [Number of annual increases, if any] annual salary increases have [increased my salary by a total of/increased my salary by a total percentage], paltry in comparison to my present wage. I have never received a salary increase of more than [amount or percentage] percent.

These numbers simply do not add up. I consistently receive excellent marks on my reviews, leading me to believe that you and your managers think my work is excellent. Yet my raises are mediocre.

I feel that this discussion is long overdue, and I hope that you will give my request serious consideration.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

John

Jabberwocky
By Lewis Carroll

'Twas brillig, and the slithy toves
Did gyre and gimble in the wabe
All mimsy were the borogoves
And the mome raths outgrabe

Beware the Jabberwock, my son
The jaws that bite, the claws that catch!
Beware the Jubjub bird, and shun
The frumious Bandersnatch

He took his vorpal sword in hand,
Long time the manxome foe he sought
So rested he by the Tumtum tree
And stood awhile in thought

And as in uffish thought he stood
The Jabberwock, with eyes of flame
Came whiffling through the tulgey wood,
And burbled as it came

One, two! One, two! And through and through
The vorpal blade went snicker-snack!
He left it dead, and with its head
He went galumphing back

And hast thou slain the Jabberwock?
Come to my arms, my beamish boy!
O frabjous day! Callooh! Callay!
He chortled in his joy

'Twas brillig, and the slithy toves
Did gyre and gimble in the wabe
All mimsy were the borogoves
And the mome raths outgrabe

Just a closer walk with Thee,
Grant it, Jesus, is my plea,
Daily walking close to Thee,
Let it be, dear Lord, let it be.

I am weak, but Thou art strong,
Jesus, keep me from all wrong.
I'll be satisfied as long
As I walk, let me walk close to Thee.

Through this world of toil and snares,
If I falter, Lord, who cares?
Who with me my burden shares?
None but Thee, dear Lord, none but Thee.

When my feeble life is o'er,
Time for me will be no more,
Guide me gently, safely o'er
To Thy kingdom, dear Lord, to Thy shore.

I am weak, but Thou art strong;
Jesus, keep me from all wrong;
I'll be satisfied as long
As I walk, let me walk close to Thee.

I propose to change the system so that when density card output is requested, plotted densities are punched out. In the normal case there would simply be the average densities. If the test rele calls for E.N.D. conversion, it would be the E.N.D. densities that are punched out. If the test breaks down, e.g. because of range check failure, we would get cards punched out for individual strips, since individuals are punched in that case.

I would appreciate your comments on this proposal by January 2, 1971.

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine and I'd like to test it just to make sure it works. How can I do that?

Presumably you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both.

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1 855-330-4239 (a toll-free number in the United States.) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax Jay — it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to EasyZero. This site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

Mr Hansen

Thanks you for consulting us for the interior space planning and landscaping in your new divisional headquarters We are pleased to submit our proposal herewith for the concept phase as agreed earlier

Since your available area is somewhat limited we suggest a modular layout This concept emphasizes space conservation and yet still provides for a modern pleasing atmosphere

Enclosed are two floor plans The first one will allow you to keep your present furniture The second was designed with the intention that our new space-saving modules be used Notice that the latter will provide for more spacious accommodations and/or room for additional personnel Also included are the specification sheets on these products

After you have had a chance to study our ideas, I would like to set up a meeting during October to discuss any further refinements I will have my secretary make the arrangements Please call me in the interim if you have any questions

EGFR Mutations NOT DETECTED

Method: Target Selector™ by Biocept

The EGFR Mutation assay is a quantitative RealTime PCR based mutant enrichment assay with selective blocking of EGFR wild-type amplification. The amplification products are purified and subject to sequencing to confirm the presence of the EGFR mutation. This assay analyzes for the following EGFR mutations: del 19, L858R and T790M. The assay has a sensitivity >99% and specificity >99% at 0.05% mutant allele frequency.

Supporting Data

Alteration	Result	Mutant Copies detected per ml	Wild-type Copies detected per ml	Percent Mutant Allele
T790M	Not Detected	NA	NA	NA
L858R	Not Detected	NA	NA	NA
Del19	Not Detected	NA	NA	NA

Plasma Volume Used: ml

This Target Selector™ assay analyzes for the presence of Del19 and L858R activating mutations associated with response to targeted EGFR tyrosine kinase inhibitors as well as the T790M point mutation associated with resistance to these therapies.
